

“Things were looking bleak.
In the three previous weeks the submarines had sunk 152 British merchant ships. It was manifest that this thing could not go on if the Allies were to win the war.”

COMMANDER JOSEPH K. TAUSSIG
Commanding officer
Division 8, Destroyer Force